Tko treba biti vlasnik programskog koda?

Aco Dmitrović, APZ
CUC 2014

Copyright

- Ako nema licence, smatra se da je softver vlasnički
- Copyleft – Richard Stallman
- Freeware – distribucija bez naplate

•Public domain

- Softver u "javnoj domeni"
- Nema vlasništva
 - no copyright, trademark, patent
- Omogućava prisvajanje koda

FSF

- Hakerska kultura 70-tih, 80-tih
- GPL
- Dvjestotinjak verzija slobodnih licenci
- BSD, Apache, Debian...

4 slobode

0. Sloboda pokretanja programa u bilo koje svrhe
1. Sloboda proučavanja rada i prilagodba programa kako bi vršio računalne aktivnosti koje želite. Dostupnost je izvornog kôda za to preduvjet.
2. Sloboda distribucije kopija kako biste pomogli bližnjemu
3. Sloboda distribucije izmijenjenih inačica programa na korist zajednici.

IDABC

- Interoperable Delivery of European eGovernment Services to public Administrations, Business and Citizens

App

- CIRCA, a groupware for sharing documents within user groups
- IPM, a powerful and easy to use tool for direct consultation through the Internet
- Elink, secure messaging services

- The European Community, on the basis of the contracts that permitted the development of such software, is owner of all Intellectual Property Rights and consequently of the source code and executables

- IDABC developed tools are used by public administrations outside the European Institutions,
- The copyright for those tools belongs to the European Community.
- Interest in the publication of the software source code under a licence that would not limit access and modifications

- EUPL Licence was established for such software
- The Licence is written in general terms and could therefore be used for derivative works, for other works and by other licensors

- The utility of this Licence is to reinforce legal interoperability by adopting a common framework for pooling public sector software
- This preamble is not a part of the EUPL Licence

EUPL

- The Licensor: the natural or legal person that distributes and/or communicates the Work under the Licence
- The Licensee or “You”: any natural or legal person who makes any usage of the Software

- Contributor: any natural or legal person who modifies the Work under the Licence, or otherwise contributes to the creation of a Derivative Work

- Distribution and/or Communication: any act of selling, giving, lending, renting, distributing, communicating, transmitting, or otherwise making available, on-line or off-line, copies of the Work or providing access to its essential functionalities at the disposal of any other natural or legal person

Scope

- The Licensor hereby grants You a world-wide, royalty-free, non-exclusive, sub-licensable licence to do the following, for the duration of copyright vested in the Original Work:

- use the Work in any circumstance and for all usage,
- reproduce the Work,
- modify the Original Work, and make Derivative Works based upon the Work,
- communicate to the public, including the right to make available or display the Work or copies thereof to the public and perform publicly,
- distribute the Work or copies thereof,
- lend and rent the Work or copies thereof,
- sub-license rights in the Work or copies thereof.

- In the countries where moral rights apply, the Licensor waives his right to exercise his moral right to the extent allowed by law in order to make effective the licence of the economic rights here above listed.

- The Licensor grants to the Licensee royalty-free, non exclusive usage rights to any patents held by the Licensor, to the extent necessary to make use of the rights granted on the Work under this Licence.

- The Licensor may provide the Work either in its Source Code form, or as Executable Code.
- If the Work is provided as Executable Code, the Licensor provides in addition a machine-readable copy of the Source Code along with each copy of the Work, a repository where the Source Code is easily and freely accessible for as long as the Licensor continues to distribute and/or communicate the Work
